

Timber planters to provide aesthetic and mental positive effects

Metal clad flooring to provide a hygienic and easy-clean surface

North external wall clad with dark grey steel

Basil, lavender, rosemary and chinese evergreen are some examples of the vegetation which will be planted within the borders as these plants are scientifically proven to give off the phytoncides which help mental health

Office space for building management and station management

100mm blockwork

Metal subframe

Corten steel/dark grey steel cladding with drip fixed to metal frame supported on cold rolled steel

100mm insulation

12.5mm vapour check plasterboard to provide 1/2 hr fire protection

Planted borders to release phytoncides which have positive impacts on mental health and human wellbeing

Storage space for food supply, general supplies for amenities and plant/services location

Timber stud walls to provide office space and other amenities

External wall clad with corten steel

Glazed sliding doors

Anisotropic lattice running throughout building as structural core

Lift

Funicular lift to provide access to upper level for disabled patrons and commuters

Entrance and lobby area

Seating area

Plant and storage

Glazing framed with dark grey aluminium

Cafe and bar

Male WC

Female WC

Ticket office

